

Spicy Snacks + Giveaway!

Here we've got three different types of spicy chip snacks. Two of them are made from corn chips and one of them is a coconut chip. All of them pack a little heat. We were sent these chips to taste and share with you (yep – we're giving 5 of these "snack packages" away!) and, I have to say, they were all delicious in their own ways. I didn't find any of them to have an overpowering amount of heat to them, which was nice, and we all agreed that the flavors were surprisingly delicious. (I really enjoyed the Smokin' Jalapeño White Cheddar!) The coconut chips were the most interesting to me, since I'd never tried a "spicy coconut" flavor before.
